President's Volunteer Service Awards

- The "President's Volunteer Service Award" is a prestigious national honor offered in recognition of sustained volunteer service.
- Established in 2003 to give recognition to individuals, families and groups who have demonstrated a sustained commitment to volunteer service each year. The award shares this achievement as a way to inspire others to contribute to their communities through volunteer service and to make volunteer service a central part of their lives
- Loudoun Volunteer Services' focus in using the award is to encourage and strengthen youth volunteerism in Loudoun County.
- To be eligible for the award, you must be a Loudoun County student enrolled in a public, private, or home-school grade of Kindergarten through 12.
 - Children from Kindergarten through age 14 are eligible to receive the award after completing at least 50 hours of community service in a single year.
 - Ages 15 to high school seniors are eligible after 100 hours of annual work.
